

Data Security in the Trenches:

How to Equip Your Employees as the First Line of Defense (And Keep Them That Way)

Learn tangible steps that banks can take to train employees on how to prevent a data breach and what to do should one occur. GableGotwals attorneys, Tom C. Vincent II and Diana Tate Vermeire, will also discuss compliance with state and federal laws and regulations, and how to reduce the risk of a cybersecurity breach.

Tom is an attorney who previously served as a bank's chief compliance officer. His practice areas include banking and financial services compliance, cybersecurity and data privacy. Diana is a Shareholder with the firm who practices labor and employment law in addition to general litigation, cybersecurity and data privacy.

GableGotwals is hosting this complimentary webinar to CBAO Members.
