GABLE GOTWALS
COUNSEL

Trisha E. Bunce

Trisha Bunce is a litigation Associate at GableGotwals, where she previously worked as a summer associate. Her practice focuses on mineral title, employment, and commercial litigation matters.

At the University of Oklahoma College of Law, Trisha received the Joel Jankowsky Outstanding Graduate Award and was involved with numerous student organizations, including Oklahoma Law Review, the Native American Law Student Association, the Federal Bar Association, and Phi Alpha Delta. She was a finalist in the New York State Bar Association National Moot Court Competition, finishing second in the region and qualifying for the national level tournament. She also served as a student mentor and admissions ambassador and was the student representative to the 2024–25 Faculty Hiring Committee.

Before attending law school, Trisha worked as an early childhood education teacher and held multiple roles at Infant Crisis Services, where she focused on grant writing, donor relations, and nonprofit operations. She also contributed as a freelance writer and photographer for Oklahoma Today magazine. Her community volunteer service includes work with Infant Crisis Services, CASA, Positive Tomorrows, and The Depot Performing Arts Studio.

Trisha E. Bunce

Associate 405-235-5596
tbunce@gablelaw.com

PRACTICE AREAS

- Litigation (State & Federal)
- Title Examination – Oil & Gas
- Employment & Labor Law

EDUCATION

- J.D., University of Oklahoma College of Law; Order of the Coif; Oklahoma Law Review, Topic Editor & Candidate Mentor; Federal Bar Association, Vice President & Treasurer; Native American Law Student Association, Social Media Chair; Phi Alpha Delta, Justice; Comfort Scholar; Top Ten Scholar; Holloway Scholar; Joel Jankowsky Outstanding Graduate Award; OBA Bankruptcy & Reorganization Section Award; Research Assistant, Professor Kit Johnson
- B.S. in Early Childhood Education, University of Oklahoma

ADMISSIONS

- Oklahoma