

Employment Law Seminar:

The Lifecycle of an Employee

Please join us for an information packed half-day seminar that will bring recent EEOC guidance and trending legal decisions into real-life, covering a gamut of employment issues from recruiting and onboarding, to accommodation requests, to retaliation prevention, and eventually, termination. The fictitious employer, No Risk Tolerance Insurance Group, Inc., has had quite a year, and we're excited to let you learn from its mistakes.

Oklahoma City
Tuesday, October 3, 2017
11:30 am to 5 pm
Credit Union House
631 E. Hill St.

Tulsa
Thursday, October 5, 2017
11:30 am to 5 pm
Holiday Inn
17 West 7th Street

Specific Topics to be covered include:

- Session 1: Recruiting employees the right way: asking the right questions, performing the right research, and making the right decisions
- Session 2: Accommodating employees based on all relevant considerations: the intersecting and occasionally overlapping obligations of the FMLA, PDA, and ADAAA
- Session 3: Preventing employees from retaliating through policies and training: the EEOC's recent guidance for employers
- Session 4: Terminating employees who know too much: ensuring that sensitive and confidential data remains in the company's possession

Please RSVP to Melissa Bogle at mbogle@gablelaw.com

Approved by SHRM for 3 hours CLE. Oklahoma Bar Association approval pending