

Michael R. Scoggins

Michael Scoggins is a Shareholder at GableGotwals, where he focuses on commercial law, energy law, mergers and acquisitions, corporate, and real estate transactions. Prior to joining the Firm, Michael served as Senior Counsel for an oil and gas exploration and production company which provided him with first-hand insight into the operational, management, and legal issues facing energy companies. He has applied that knowledge to represent his clients who conduct business in various industries, including but not limited to oil and gas, commercial real estate, and health and wellness. Michael currently serves as a de facto general counsel for multiple clients, advising them on all issues related to their business and truly relishes his role as business and legal advisor to the companies and individuals he represents.

Michael is a Board Member of the YWCA Tulsa and the Oklahoma Appleseed Center for Law and Justice. In addition, he is an ultra-distance endurance athlete, training for and competing in 100-mile running races and Ironman-distance triathlons.
