

Whitney Humphrey

Whitney Humphrey is a transactional Associate at GableGotwals. Her practice focuses on mergers and acquisitions, commercial lending and corporate finance, real estate transactions, securities, entity formation and restructuring, and general corporate matters.

Working across various industries, including manufacturing, transportation, oil and gas, banking, healthcare, and professional services, Whitney has experience representing buyers and sellers in connection with asset and stock purchases and sales, as well as representing financial institutions and borrowers in connection with complex commercial financing transactions.

She assists business clients of all sizes in drafting and negotiating commercial contracts and counseling on corporate governance, risk management, shareholder relations, and regulatory matters, including compliance with federal securities rules and regulations. Her real estate practice includes commercial property sales and acquisitions, leasing, project development, transaction financing, and zoning and land use matters.

Whitney graduated with highest honors from The University of Tulsa College of Law where she served as the Notes & Comments Editor of the Tulsa Law Review. While in law school, she earned four CALI Awards, was named a Holloway Scholar, and served in externship roles for Oral Roberts University and for a local non-profit organization.

Whitney is active in the Tulsa community and currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Parent Child Center of Tulsa.
